THE GREAT ICEE STAND COLLAPSE

If there was one thing that could not or should not happen at IFC, it would be the internal breakdown of the icee machine. Explanations for the breakdown were nothing short of the most heinous conspiracy theories: a black helicopter flew over right at the time the icee machines went down, in the air of Deepwater Horizon the environmentalists of IFC caused this event, or a group of international elites are controlling the icee consumption at IFC in an attempt to secretly stage this event to control the IFC economy. Whatever the reason, the biggest catastrophe were all the broken hearts that happened when in one fell swoop, all the icee dates came to a halt.

Since there's no help, come let us kiss and part; Nay, I have done, you get no more of me, And I am glad, yea glad with all my heart. That thus so cleanly I myself can free; Shake hands forever, cancel all our vows, And when we meet at any time again, Be it not seen in either of our brows That we one jot of former love retain...

CHRONIC ILLNESS AND GOD’S PLAN - PART 3, Kelli Webster

There are a lot of losses that come with Chronic Illness, but there are also a lot of gains as well. One of those rewards are those poignant, penetrating glimpses into God’s character and nature that you may not have seen otherwise. Yes, they’re gems, but they also come at a high cost. Through suffering perseverance, obedience and submission. Scripture encourages us to pursue wisdom at all costs.

Coping with a chronic illness means living with symptoms that spell loss. Either a loss of life, loss of abilities, endurance, skills, resources and often your way of relating to others. The magnitude of any loss we have is measured by the value of what we have placed on what we lose. The more valued it is, the harder it is to lose. God fully knows and thoroughly understands the losses that often come with our afflictions. He also knows that the eternal outshines the temporary things of this earth. 2 Corinthians 4:18 reminds us to fix our eyes not on what is seen, but what is unseen. What is seen is temporary, but the unseen is eternal.

How can a life that has experienced so much loss hold any promise of joy? As you grow in the character of Christ, you realize the true freedom and joy in living for God because you’ll be accomplishing the reason you were created.

One thing to remember is to be content with what we receive from God. Whatever He deems fit for me, even if it is something I wasn’t expecting because something from God is better than nothing at all. “BUt godliness with contentment is great gain.” 1 Timothy
